

MACIMIDE SYMPOSIUM ON MIGRATION, CITIZENSHIP AND DEVELOPMENT

SUNDAY, 9 April 2017

Check-in Time	Arrival and Hotel check-in Check-in is possible from 3:00 PM. Please inform Luca Bucken if your ETA is after 6:00 PM.
	Hotel Mabi Kleine Gracht 24 6211CB Maastricht	Townhouse Designhotel Sint Maartenslaan 5 6211AV Maastricht
19:00	Speakers dinner Meze Bar & Restaurant Mandalin Kommel 8 6211NZ Maastricht

MONDAY, 10 April 2017

08:30 – 09:00	Registration Faculty of Law, Maastricht University Bouillonstraat 1-3 6211 LH Maastricht
09:00 – 10:45	Cross-Border Mobility Chair: Hildegard Schneider (Maastricht University) Discussants: Petra Foubert (Hasselt University), Alexander Hoogenboom (Maastricht University), Herwig Verschueren (University of Antwerp) Room: Feestzaal	Transnational Families Chair: Valentina Mazzucato (Maastricht University) Discussants: Karlijn Haagsman (Maastricht University), Asuncion Fresnoza-Flot (Radboud University), Zana Vathi (Edge Hill University) Room: Statenzaal
	'The EU labor migration regime: rewarding skills, restraining those without.' by Margarite Helena Zoeteweij	'Investigating reverse remittance practice among Ghanaian migrants in the UK and their relatives in Ghana' by Asiwome Adiku

	‘Which system allows for what? Comparing opportunities for academic and labor mobility through the recognition of qualifications’ by Lavinia Kortese	‘The other side of need: reverse economic remittances from ‘back home’ by Polina Palash
	‘EU’s circular migration approach – dead or alive? An insight into implementation dynamics from Central and Eastern Europe’ by Zvezda Vankova	‘Social (un)protection: The Case of Sudanese Migrants in the Netherlands and the United Kingdom’ by Ester Serra Mingot
	‘Freedom of movement at crossroads: Welfare governance and the boundaries of belonging in the European Union’ by Jack Mullan	‘Navigating expectations: mobile Ghanaian youth negotiating their educational realities’ by Joan van Geel
10:45 – 11:15	Coffee break
11:15 – 13:00	Cross-Border Mobility Chair: Hildegard Schneider (Maastricht University) Discussants: Petra Foubert (Hasselt University), Alexander Hoogenboom (Maastricht University), Herwig Verschueren (University of Antwerp), Patrick Wautelet (University of Liege) Room: Feestzaal	Transnational Families Chair: Valentina Mazzucato (Maastricht University) Discussants: Karlijn Haagsman (Maastricht University), Asuncion Fresnoza-Flot (Radboud University), Zana Vathi (Edge Hill University) Room: Statenzaal
	‘Europeanisation of families? Marriages of convenience and EU free movement law’ by Aleksandra Jolkina	‘Changing boundaries. Albanian-Italian/Romanian partnerships and marriages in Italy’ by Rachele Bezzini
	‘Where to marry, or where not to marry: that is the question – the issue of secondary recognition’ by David de Groot	‘Cross-border Mobility and Children Education Among South Korean Migrant Families in Beijing’ by Xiao Ma
	‘Once a refugee, always a choiceless person? Marriage, choice of law and problematic issues in the interpretation of the 1951 Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees and the 1954	‘Shifting Women. The mobilization of intimate kinship in a Punjabi diaspora domestic narrative’ by Sara Bonfanti

	Convention Relating to the Status of Stateless persons' by Rorick Tovar	Discussant: Asuncion Freznosa-Flot
	'Wealth influx/wealth exodus: Investment migration from China to Portugal' by Li Hanwei and Luuk van der Baaren	'African Pentecostalism and transnational marriage practices in Belgium' by Joseph Bosco Bangura
13:00 – 14:00	Lunch break
14:00 – 15:45	Migration and Development Chair: Melissa Siegel (Maastricht University) Discussant: Carlos Vargas-Silva (University of Oxford) Room: Feestzaal	Citizenship and Immigrant Integration Chairs: René de Groot (Maastricht University), Maarten Vink (Maastricht University) Discussants: David de Groot (University of Berne), Patrick Wautelet (University of Liege) Room: Statenzaal
	'The consequences of forced migration: does the presence of refugees lead to greater economic activity for host communities?' by Craig Loschmann	'Diaspora status and citizenship rights. A comparative-legal analysis of quasi-citizenship schemes of India, Suriname and Turkey' by Chun Luk
	'Intersecting policy universes across the EU funding for migration and development to Africa' by Leonhard den Hertog	'I have two Flags in my Heart: Diasporic Citizenship of Jamaicans Living in the United Kingdom' by Aieka Smith
	'The impact of forced migration on labor market outcomes of Congolese refugees in Rwanda' by Katrin Marchand	'Athletes with reproduced surnames: Is it more than a medal or selling passports?' by Elcin Istif and Aysegul Komsuoglu
	'Moved by Modernity: Migration, development, and changing aspirations in Ethiopia' by Kerilyn Schewel	'Migrating into citizenship. The migrant's journey to citizenship' by Marianela Barrios Aquino
15:45 - 16:15	Coffee break

16:15 – 18:00	Migration and Development Chair: Melissa Siegel (Maastricht University) Discussant: Carlos Vargas-Silva (University of Oxford) Room: Feestzaal	Citizenship and Immigrant Integration Chairs: René de Groot (Maastricht University), Maarten Vink (Maastricht University) Discussants: David de Groot (University of Berne), Patrick Wautelet (University of Liege) Room: Statenzaal
	‘Analyzing diaspora policies beyond remittances: impacts and pitfalls of Morocco’s diaspora engagement policies in the country’s development’ by Angela Suarez-Collado	‘Policy framing, public contention and mediated consensus: The politics of citizenship reform in Greece’ by Afroditi Gavriil
	‘Multiculturalism and growth: Skill-specific evidence from the post-WW2 period’ by Riccardo Turati	‘The role of culture in the path towards citizenship’ by Francesca Raimondo
	‘Community-based children left behind protection (A case study in Banyumas Regency, Jawa Tengah, Indonesia)’ by Tyas Retno Wulan and Diyah Woro Dwi Lestari	‘Citizenship and the gendered boundary of the nation’ by Anne Kristol
18:30	Dinner Grand Café Maastricht Soiron Vrijthof 18 6211LD Maastricht

T U E S D A Y, 11 April 2017

09:00 – 10:45	Training Session Part 1: Funding Migration Research through Personal grants Room: Feestzaal
10:45 – 11:00	Coffee break
11:15 – 13:00	Training Session Part 2: Funding Migration Research through Personal grants Room: Feestzaal
13:00	Lunch and conference closing